

Residential Conveyancing – our prices and services

For a sale or purchase, our fees cover all of the work required to complete the sale or purchase of your new home.

In relation to a purchase they cover dealing with registration at the Land Registry, dealing with payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax if the property is in England, or Land Transaction Tax if the property is in Wales.

In relation to a sale, they would also include dealing with the redemption of any mortgage. Our fees do not include any tax advice, other than to confirm the relevant level of stamp duty applicable, nor do they include the preparation of any declarations of trust.

Before we start any work, we will provide a firm estimate of the legal fees which are likely to be charged for the transaction.

TRANSACTION VALUE/TYPE	FACTORS AFFECTING COST	COSTS RANGE + VAT ¹
Up to £700,000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Transaction value • Freehold or leasehold property • Registered or unregistered property • Property location • Whether you are using a government help to buy scheme or currently have one secured on your home • Complexity • Urgency 	Range between £300 plus VAT and £1,500 plus VAT

¹ Possible additional charges for legal fees

We understand that transaction complications can sometimes arise that were not able to be anticipated at the time of giving our estimate and in those circumstances you may be charged additional legal fees. We would advise you of any additional fees before they are incurred. Examples of such circumstances are:

- The property is being newly constructed;
- There are issues surrounding planning and building regulations;
- Shared ownership;
- Transfer of Part;
- Private access issues;
- Private services;
- Residential Tenancies;
- Defective titles
